Arts Council News

Give Arvie a big sendoff! Longtime OCAC member Arvie Bourgeault (right) is moving to the lower mainland. We are marking her departure with a party & presentation during Arts Jam this month. Arvie's special talent is in window dressing, design, and publicity. She helped co-ordinate our entry in the July parade, and has served on both the Vision and Publicity committees.

We will sure miss her! (Photo Credit: Jack Bennest)

Fall Art Show & Sale With a 15% increase in entries over last year, and a bevy of artists demonstrating their craft all weekend long, this signature OCAC event looks to be one of our best! Theme: "Casting Shadows"
Sat. Sept. 29: 3 – 9 p.m. Exhibits, voting, reception, auction, sales
Sunday Sept. 30: 12 – 5 p.m. Exhibits, silent auction, sales
Oliver Community Centre Hall ~ Art sales all weekend!

In addition to the competition, delight in the RipOff Artists exhibit, view the work of four commercial South Okanagan artists, relax with some hors d'oeuvres and harp music at the reception, bid for a collectible, and schmooze the weekend away! Bring cheque or credit card for purchasing art, auction items, OCAC memberships, and gift-ware.

Thanks Cameron Ogilvie! Cameron has been contracted to paint the kitchen walls and bay floors in the Studio Building at the Quail's Nest Arts Centre. All neutral tones. Looking great!

Welcome back! Stephanie Salsnek has been appointed Vice President pro tem by the Board for the remainder of the term held by recently moved VP Esther Brown. She brings lots of previous OCAC Board experience & pizzazz!

Your suggestions for seasonal entertainment welcome! The Community Christmas Concert committee. is booking local talent for this popular event on December 2. To suggest a performer, contact Brian Mapplebeck 250-498-3597 or olivercac@gmail.com
