Arts Council News

AGM: Monday February 13 at 9:30 is your chance to elect the new OCAC Board. As a result of changing to the new BC Societies Act, it is also your chance to approve a new set of by-laws. These follow the new Model By-Laws but preserve all past amendments to our current by-laws. Copies will be sent to every member for review. Amendments and questions welcome.

Nominations: We say goodbye to two directors on the Board: Terry Irvine and Chris Seibeck. Irvine has offered to remain as the rental agent for the arts centre. Seibeck will continue to help with the Christmas Concert. New nominations encouraged to keep the Board vital & fresh! Have your say!

Treasurer to Bookkeeper: After many years of service, Arleyene Farnworth is stepping down as the Board's Treasurer. Among her many talents, she has fully computerized the society's books, which has simplified a complex job. Thank you Arleyene!!!

Treasurers are scarce, but the Board has already found a solution. Arleyene has been contracted as the society's bookkeeper for the next fiscal year.

One nominee for Treasurer has agreed to stand: current Board member Diane Gludovatz. Other nominations are welcome. Duties include making deposits, signing cheques, reporting to the Board, and overseeing the financial state of the OCAC but bookkeeping skills are not required.
