Arts Council News

Join us for the annual Arts Jam! Potluck. Bring a casserole, salad or dessert to share. Beverages and dinnerware provided. The council will also bring one "leftover" -- but it's not food! After one brief item of business from the AGM (2012 Year End Financial Statement), we'll move on to jam-packed summer arts news.

Congratulations to the latest winners of the arts council's Contracted Service Agreements ! They are Friends of the Oliver Library (2014 Summer Reading Program for Children), the Oliver Sagebrushers (art and gardening lessons for mixed ages 2013), Sage Valley Voices Community Choir (Christmas concert 2013) and the South Okanagan Concert Society (2013-14 concert series).

The arts council has just approved a set of new logos, featuring our quirky quail. The new design sets the little fellow against a stylized background of sun, sky, hills, and vineyards. New fonts make our name and tagline really pop. The logo will appear on the Creative Minds banner starting next month. See the four variations on the design at Arts Jam! A big thank you to Mary Fry of Mary Fry Designs for her skills!

Exterior painting begins at the Quail's Nest Arts Centre the week of June 24. The Studio Building will be painted blue with white trim and doors to match the Big Blue Building. After a bid process, Cameron Ogilvie was awarded the contract. Last winter, Cameron painted the Studio interior.
