Arts Council News

Showcase of Talent: Exercise your heart and smile muscles by attending a delightful concert featuring youthful stars. Friday, May 6 at 7:00 p.m. at Park Drive Church. Admission by donation. Refreshments served.

BCAC Award: The arts council was awarded $8,000 in annual operational funding from the BC Arts Council earlier this spring. Originally, the award included $2000 Basic Assistance, $4,000 Local Government Matching, and $3,000 Annual Performance Award. $1,000 was clawed back to pro-rate for a fiscal year change in 2008-2009 that had gone unaccounted for by the BCAC. We are also grateful for the matching amount of $4,000 received from Oliver Parks and Recreation, which disburses funds on behalf of the Town and the RDOS. That brings our total operating grant to $12,000 this year. Thank you BCAC (the Province of BC) and local government bodies!

Piano Memorial for Agnes: Donating to a piano for the Frank Venables Theatre lobby is a great way to remember Agnes Sutherland's many contributions to local music. Donations are accepted at any branch of the Valley First Credit Union. State the following: "Agnes Sutherland Memorial", account # 2826758, transit # 16650, institute # 809. Or make a cheque payable to "Agnes Sutherland Memorial" and mail it c/o Marion Trimble, 967 Panorama Crescent, Oliver, BC V0H 1T6.

The arts council Board will be making a memorial donation to local schools in honour of Agnes. Stay tuned for exciting details later this spring.

Going Wild? Express it in your favourite medium and enter the Fall Art Show & Sale (Oct. 1 -2). Entry deadline Sept. 9. www.oliverartscouncil.org "Forms"
