Fall Art Show & Sale:

"Go with the Flow" at the year's biggest arts event. Join us for the Fall Art Show & Sale on Saturday September 30 from 3 – 9 p.m. (public admission) and Sunday October 1 from 12 noon to 5 p.m. (Festival of the Grape admission) at the Oliver Community Centre.

Vote for your favourites, nibble at the dessert reception, listen to some live jazz, applaud the winners! Volunteers still needed all weekend. Pick a shift! Volunteer on Sunday for free admission to the Festival of the Grape. Greeters, ballot counters, security, and tear down. Contact OliverCAC@gmail.com or 250-498-0183.

Music in the Park: Despite smoky air for the last two concerts, moved indoors, Music in the Park netted a small profit of about $400. Favourites with the audience included the ever-popular Naden Band. Professional blues singer Sabrina Weeks earned a standing O, as did locals Sister Soul, Rob 'n' Walker were in top country form with some new originals. The return of the Steve Jones Band after a hiatus of a few years, was met with enthusiastic applause, with charismatic lead singer Steve delighting the crowd. Have recommendations for next year? Tell us!

CreateAbility: Our monthly art workshops resume this fall for adults with developmental and physical challenges. Instructors work with a 1:4 ratio. Know someone who would benefit from this creative stimulation? Want to be an instructor? Contact OliverCAC@gmail.com CreateAbility is a featured exhibit at the Fall Art Show. Check out their gorgeous greeting cards for sale! Buy singles for your own use, or a whole set as a classy gift.
