Arts Council News

Holly Jolly Oliver! You're invited to our festive concert on Sunday November 25 at 2:30 p.m. at the Venables Theatre. Listen for ethereal handbells chiming in the atrium, the jingle of Bhangra dance, choirs, duos, and soloists. Ballet Kelowna performs three Nutcracker selections, including the Sugarplum Fairy Waltz. Catch a sneak peek of It's a Wonderful Life too! A jolly visitor is expected. Admission by donation. Proceeds to food bank.

Many Meetings: The arts council board reviews its programmes and events at its annual Strategic Planning meeting in November. A flurry of committees are already gearing up for spring. The Wine Capital Art Walk is "spring cleaning" its event with proposed changes to location date, and art activities. Look for it on Saturday May 11. The landscaping committee is finalizing a garden layout and signage for the arts centre frontage along Airport Street. Watch for a fun community project incorporated into the design!

CreateAbility Gets Musical: We thank the Sage Valley Voices for their donation to the CreateAbility program encouraging artistic expression with developmentally challenged adults. Their $1000 donation will help fund an exciting series of music workshops. We are always looking for instructors to join this rewarding program. Participants not only gain art skills, but also benefit emotionally and socially, If you have an artistic skill to share, make someone smile today! Supplies paid, honorarium provided. :
