Arts Springing Up: Attention artists!

Applications are now being accepted for the Wine Capital Art Walk held on the afternoon of Saturday May 11. Display artists welcome for business locations along Station Street this year. NEW for barrel artists: choose the option of painting your barrel at home (at leisure for up to a month) or on Station Street May 7 - 11. See entry forms for details.

Quail's Nest Landscaping: The landscaping committee is at the bidding stage for an entry sign. The committee anticipates landscaping will begin later this spring. Stay tuned for projects!

Annual General Meeting: The February AGM was well-attended. The external review of finances rated the OCAC as "very good" overall. All officers and directors remain the same as last year, with Andrea Furlan stepping down. See back page for the list. A lively arts discussion followed.

Shh! Art in a Quiet Place: The Oliver Regional Library is looking for artists to display their work on their walls. It's a great place to get some exposure. Interested? Give the library a call at (250) 498-2242 or email Marigje Toepfer mtoepfer@orl.bc.ca

Go PUBLIC! : Saturday March 16: Easy Website Design

Saturday April 27: Social Media Marketing

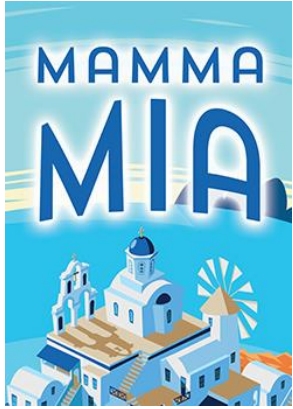

1 - 3 p.m. at the Oliver Regional Library. Pre-register online through the Oliver Library website or call ORL 250-498-2242.

Art Funding Awarded: The arts council has just received $8000 funding from the BC Arts Council. This government funding will be bolstered later in the year by a grant of $4000 provided by the Municipality and RDOS.

Murray McLauchlan performs at Venables Theatre on June 18.
