Arts Council News

Art Walk for All!: Station Street comes alive with art on Saturday May 11, 1 – 4 pm. Live music, dancing, multimedia art displays & demos, youth art exhibit, kids' cork crafts, food vendors, wine tastings, artistic drinks specials n' appies at Oliver Legion (3 – 5 pm), artisan market, and a Visitor Centre open house with even more art. Get a sneak peek from Tuesday May 7 – 10 by viewing barrel art in progress just north of the library, 10 – 4 daily. Bidding for barrels starts now! Check out barrels in progress and silent auction updates on our Facebook page. Watch for a list of all display artists and barrel artists coming soon.

Are You a Hardy Perennial? The land, a plan, plants: action! The landscape committee seeks a team of "hardy perennials" to help install a beautiful new garden in front of the Quail's Nest Arts Centre. Landscape plan posted on our website. We already have machinery + labour for the major prep work and for installing the new sign. The committee needs many willing hands to assist them with: laying landscape fabric, mulch, and plantings. We also need a few trailers and trucks for a short haul of gravel and river rock. The garden will be installed mid-May to mid-June. Dates & times are flexible -- determined by the team. Come learn some great landscaping tips, as well as socializing, and yes, some exercise!

Line-up for Music: A toe-tapping summer of music is booked. Music in the Park concerts feature four NEW bands: Sax Among Friends (jazz), Double Stop Creek (country), Room to Dance (pop), and Vagabond (rockabilly). Plus: Sister Soul pop duo return for a second year! A few favourites return: Rebel Luv (rock & country), Nankama Drum & Dance (West African beats & Zumba dance), Naden Band (Maritime Forces Pacific).
