Roll out the Barrels!: Ready to bid?

Several painted wine barrels are up for auction at the Wine Capital Art Walk. Barrel artists are Marion Trimble, Ava Grice, The Painted Chair (Rachel Allenbrand and Robert Lacasse), CreateAbility, Lorraine Gibson, Tiffany Beckedorf, and Little Wonders Daycare. Track all the updates and photos on our Facebook page (@Oliverartscouncil) View some barrel artists at work from Tuesday May 7 – 10 just north of the library, 10 – 4 daily. The Wine Capital Art Walk is on Saturday May 11, from 1 – 4 pm with the Wine'd Up Party at the Legio Hall continues from 4 – 5 pm. Bidding for barrels starts now! OliverCAC@gmail.com

Student wins big: Sixteen Showcase of Talent performers entertained with a full evening of music on May 1. See photo. All received certificates and bursaries sponsored by the Oliver Kiwanis to assist them with music supplies and lessons. One student, Kelan Harty was surprised with a special award: a cheque for $1000 to assist him with travel expenses after he was invited to perform at the BC Provincial Kiwanis Festival in Chilliwack. Congratulations all! See more photos on our website and Facebook page.

Eat & Sing: The Music in the Park committee has taken over booking the food vendor trucks from Parks & Rec this summer. This extra responsibility will earn us additional revenue to help us cover our costs. What's your favourite picnic supper in the park? Fish & chips? Samosas? Mexican? Mm- mmm gelato...? Let the committee know ASAP!
